Meeting Minutes

May 17, 2012 @ 7:00 PM

- I. Introductions
  - a. It was great to see new faces at the meeting, welcome to the neighborhood
- II. Neighborhood Watch
  - a. See attached list of block captains and their designated areas.
  - b. No new neighborhood watch sheets gathered, Block Captains will remain the same
- III. Open Discussion
  - a. Project Agenda – a summer ice cream social will be planned during the first week in August which is National Night Out week. Look for future details coming out the end of July
  - b. How do you think garage sales, trash pickup, and dumpsters went?
    - i. Very favorable comments shared.
    - ii. Maybe need to think about extra trash cans on corners in neighborhood to give shoppers place to throw their trash
- IV. Annual Meeting
  - i. Budget Report – Pat shared that we currently have a total balance in our account of $2947.66, which broken down $1122.99 is in the dewatering fund, $267 is in the park fund, $1557.67 is in the general fund.
  - ii. Committee Reports
    1. Dewatering Committee – all areas have been dry since east dewatering pump has been installed. Still waiting on light and contact sign to be put on east well. Dayna has contacted the city to ask when that will be done, I will update you once I know more.
    2. Who would like to be on a Welcome to Neighborhood Committee? Dayna will work with Virginia and Gloria on putting a packet together of information that can be given to new residents of the neighborhood when they move in.
    3. Would we like to put together a Park Development Committee? Once it is decided if when we will be approaching the park department about donating money to this fund, we will put a park committee together. Is anyone interested in being on this committee? We are also checking to see what the city has planned for our park still. We are requesting a better sign for the park before next summer and the Lincoln Highway Festival.
